

(Table 5.2) Course unit description

Study program: Hotel Management and Tourism
Type and level of studies: Undergraduate studies
Course unit: Tourism Law
Teacher in charge : Andrej Mićović
Language of instruction: English
ECTS: 8
Prerequisites: No special prerequisites
Semester: VII
Course unit objective
To familiarize students with the tourism related concepts, categories, institutes, operators, general and specific requirements for conducting business, as well as to make them familiar with the legal relations between: holders of tourist activities (tourism service providers and travel agencies) for the purpose of the conclusion and performance of some of the typical tourist contracts (allotment contract or agency contract for hospitality services); holders of tourist activities and a third person when they conclude a contract that is associated with the provision of tourism services (contract of carriage or insurance contract); holders of tourist activities and service users which is the final relation and conditio sine qua non in order for tourist service to be realized.
Learning outcomes of Course unit
Students are expected to acquire knowledge about the legal aspects of tourism related business, including legal status of tourism entities and typical tourist contracts (package travel contract, intermediary travel contract, allotment contract, hospitality services contract, agency contract for hospitality services, food and drink services contract, timeshare contract) in order to develop capacity and skills for both practical and theoretical work in the field of hospitality and tourism.
Course unit contents
Theoretical classes
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The concept, subject, importance and historical development of tourism and Tourism law - The legal sources of Tourism law - Basic concepts and standards in tourism - Legal form and status of holders of tourist and hospitality activities - Types of holders of tourist and hospitality activities - Tourism and hospitality activities - Registration of tourism and hospitality operators - Control of operations and its financial obligations - Package travel contract - Intermediary travel contract - Allotment contract - Hospitality services contract - The agency contract for hospitality services - Food and drink serving contract - Timeshare contract
Practical classes
Practical work with students will be focused on the legal analysis of the provisions contained in tourism related laws, comparison of travel and tourism rules contained in Serbian law with the respective rules at the EU level, case law. As part of the practical classes, students will take two tests and prepare term papers (both individual and team work is allowed).
Literature
Chapman, M., Prager, S., Harding, J., Saggerson on Travel Law and Litigation, London, 2013.
Grant, D., Mason, S., Holiday Law: The Law Related to Travel and Tourism, London, 2012.
Number of active teaching hours	Other classes

Lectures: 3	Practice: 2	Other forms of classes:	Independent work:
Teaching methods
Traditional teaching methods (oral presentations) will be combined with the interactive methods in order to enable students to easily follow the lecture and ensure their active participation.
Examination methods (maximum 100 points)
Exam prerequisites	No. of points:	Final exam	No. of points:
Attendance (theoretical and practical classes)	30	oral examination	40
Tests (I+II)	20	written examination
Term paper	10	Other
Grading system
Grade	No. of points		Description
10	91-100		Excellent
9	81-90		Exceptionally good
8	71-80		Very good
7	61-70		Good
6	51-60		Passing
5	0-50		Failing	