

List of courses offered in summer semester 2019 at the Department of Slavonic and Hungarian Studies:

- Historical Linguistics

Individual Topics: Old Church Slavonic; South Slavonic Redactions of Church Slavonic; Vernacular Emancipation from Church Slavonic since 17th century

- Sociolinguistics

Individual Topics: Variationist linguistics; Gender linguistics; Contact linguistics; Sociolinguistics and dialectology

- Text & Discourse

Individual Topics: Discourse, ethnicity and nationalism Language and identity; Critical Discourse Analysis in the (post)Yugoslav context

- Syntax

Individual Topics: Linguistic Theories; Comparative Syntax; Research Methods in Syntax
(Includes training in syntactic annotation and syntactic corpus analysis)

- Morphology

Individual Topics: Comparative Morphology, Research Methods in Morphology
(Includes training in morphological annotation and morphological corpus analysis)

- Semantics

Individual Topics: Lexicology, Semantic Theories, Research Methods in Semantics
(Includes training in semantic annotation, analysis of collocations, semantic analysis with corpora)