Special Programs

General Terms and Conditions

Applications will be accepted from February 25 – August 30, 2013 for programs beginning between March and October, 2013.

Scholarships are given for the following programs:

- » Visiting Professors
- » High-level Conferences
- » Genaro Estrada Scholarship for Specialists in Mexican Studies
- » Artist Residencies
- » Media Residencies
- » Improving the Quality of Mexican Secondary and Higher Education Institutions

Only citizens of the countries included in this scholarship program are eligible.

Candidates cannot be living in Mexico at the time of application.

Except in special cases, scholarships cannot begin in November or December.

Requests for information and all scholarship applications must be submitted to the Mexican embassy or concurrent embassy of the applicant's country or to the designated Mexican institution. Only applications that fulfill all of the requirements will be considered.

All documents and forms must be in Spanish or submitted with translations into Spanish.

Candidates will be informed of the results by the corresponding Mexican embassy or designated Mexican institution.

The scholarships are not transferable and cannot be deferred to future years.

The completed, original applications must be submitted prior to the deadline. Applications sent by fax or email will not be accepted.

The Office for Educational and Cultural Cooperation will arrange for and purchase the international airfare. There will be no refunds if the applicant or the host institution purchases the ticket directly.

If the applicant cancels his/her trip after the Foreign Ministry has purchased the plane ticket, he/she or the institution that nominated the applicant will be asked to reimburse the Foreign Ministry.
